Event Information:

Thank you for purchasing tickets for THE STUPIDEST, SCARIEST TIME with Swim Pony.

PLEASE NOTE: This is an entirely interactive show. You will be active and involved for the duration of the 100-minute performance; there is no "view only" option for this performance.

Audience members will be asked to leave the majority of their belongings in a separate, secure location — although we recommend keeping your phone with you, so pockets may be beneficial!

Please note that while we will supervise your belongings for the duration of the show, Swim Pony does not assume responsibility for any of your belongings during the show.

If you have any access needs relating to mobility or movement through space, please reach out ahead of time either via a note in your ticket purchase or an email to admin@swimpony.org to allow us time to make the necessary accommodations.
